

Fireworks are mainly let off during October, November and at New Year. Follow these tips for a stress-free time.

- * Keep all pets indoors after dark.
- * Shut all windows and doors.
- * Turn on the television or radio to help drown out loud bangs.
- * Animals kept in outside enclosures should be taken into a garage or outbuilding.

For more in-depth advice, please see the RSPCA's fireworks campaign .