

The RSPCA treats all reports in strictest confidence. Please ring our 24-hour Cruelty and Advice line on 0300 1234 999.

We will ask you for the following information:

- * your name and address (you may remain anonymous, but it helps us greatly if you can provide your details - these will not be disclosed to anyone outside the Society)
- * name and address of the owner or keeper of the animal
- * the animal's location
- * description of the animal
- * description of the animal's circumstances/ill treatment.

Please take the time to read this checklist before you call the number above.
